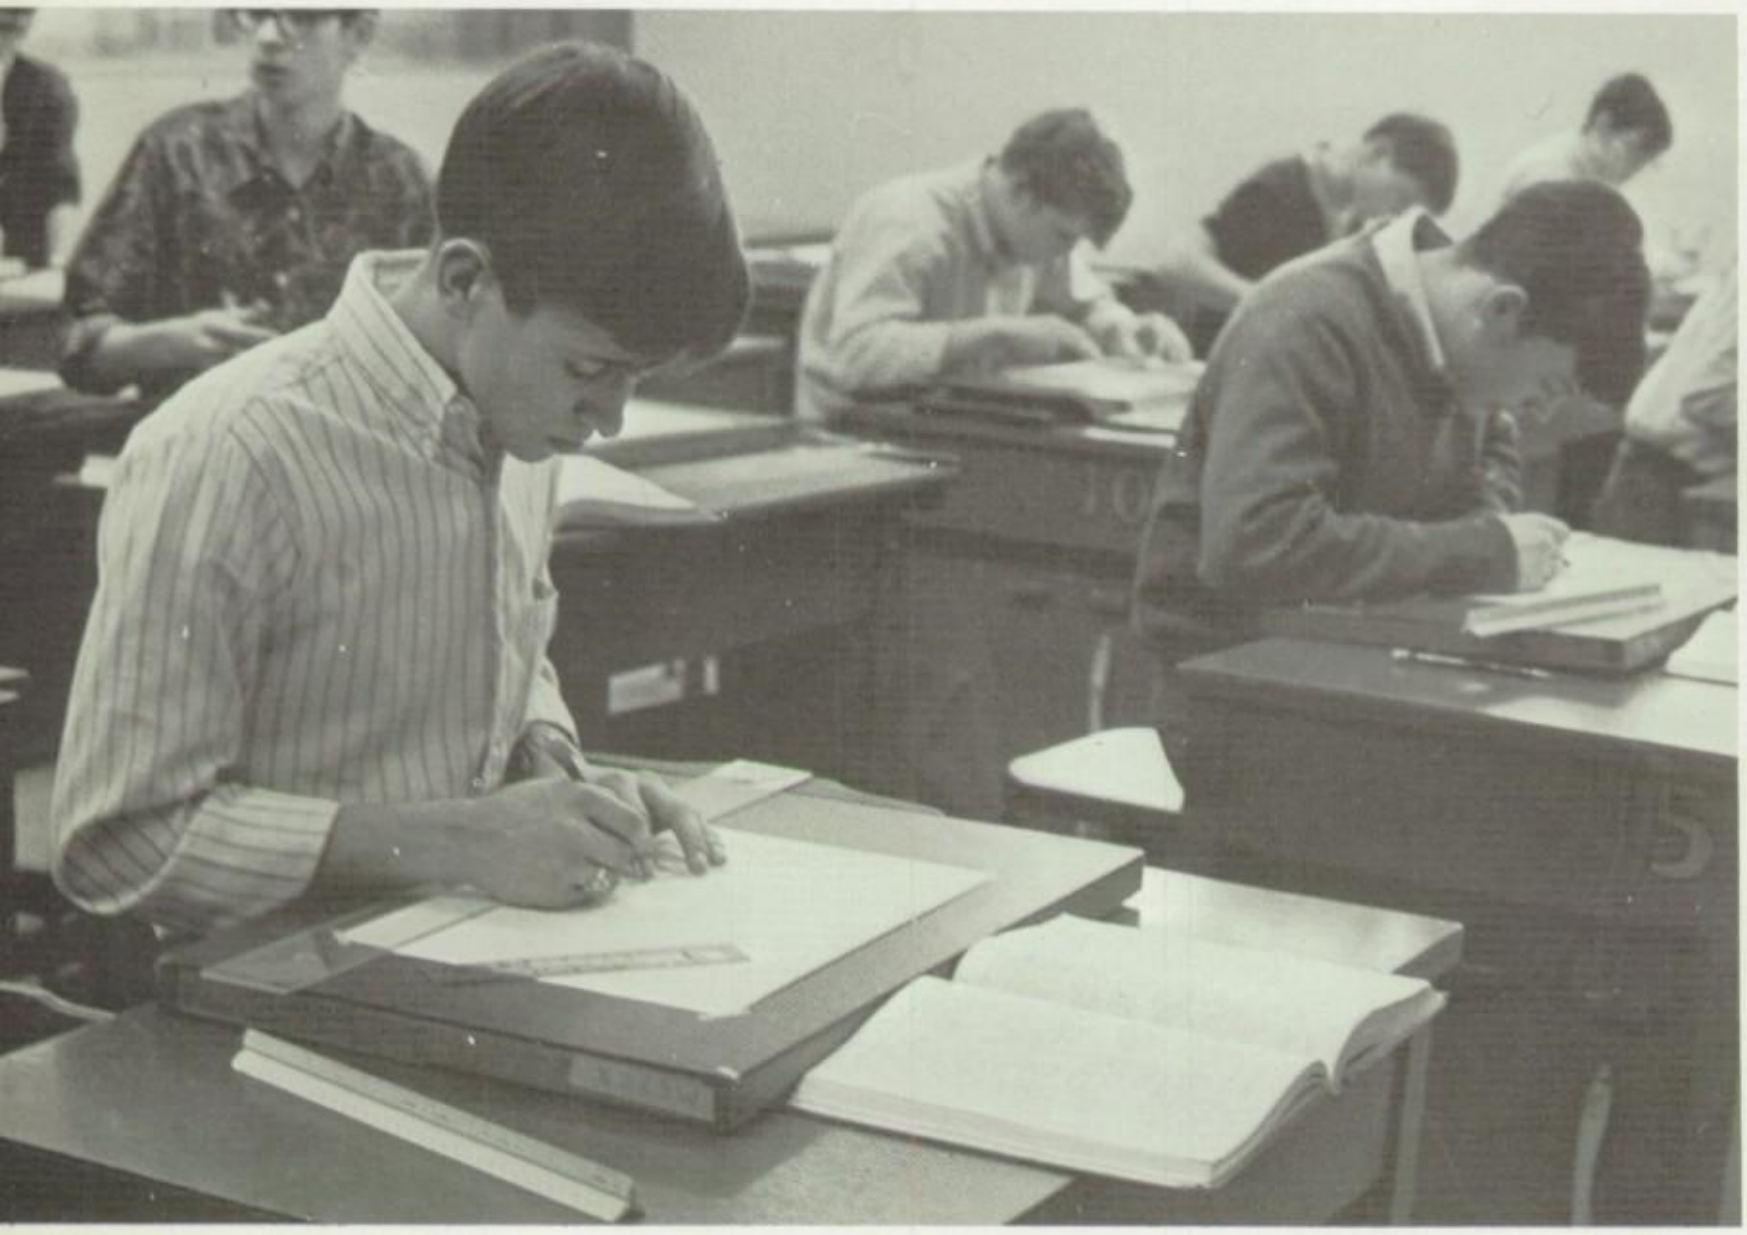
To everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven:



a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

To Ruth
Always be nice & stay the way
you are. A friend Junior.

To Ruth.
Hope you have a lot of luck in the near future. A friend.

a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time
to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

Board of Education
Superintendent

The community should be infinitely grateful to the board of education, who, on the second Monday of each month, and many times between, wrestle with the problems pertinent to maintaining a high caliber of education for developing minds and bodies. The board is comprised of Mr. Gerald Grambau, president (top left); Mr. John Moeller, treasurer (top right); Mr. Wallace

Principal

As spokesman for the present student body as well as those of past years, the PERANNOS staff pays tribute to Mrs. Ruth Hamilton, counselor and friend to countless R.C.H.S. students. Often her counseling included providing jobs and encouragement to some who floundered in a maze of confusion. Eighteen years ago she was appointed the school's first counselor and

Mr. Conley (right) expends considerable time planning and reorganizing the academic and athletic programs. Besides being a capable administrator, he is a promoter of student interests. His amiability and his willingness to listen to problems have brought students and principal closer together and helped create the congenial mood prevalent at Rogers City High School.

Mrs. McLaughlin (above), office secretary, contributes much to the cooperative spirit of the school.

since that time she has developed the department to its present high standard. Prior to this work Mrs. Hamilton, at various times, taught almost every subject the school offered, totaling thirty-seven years of service to the school district. The staff extends a long overdue "thank you" as Mrs. Hamilton says farewell to a lifetime of devotion to R.C.H.S. students.

Mr. Joe Peck, another popular counselor, has introduced several innovations in his year and a half at Rogers City High. Other responsibilities include sponsorship of the National Honor Society, the Ski Club, and the junior class.

Students

When we started high school
We were scared — Afraid of the people,
challenges,
and everything
big.
Soon we overcame that.

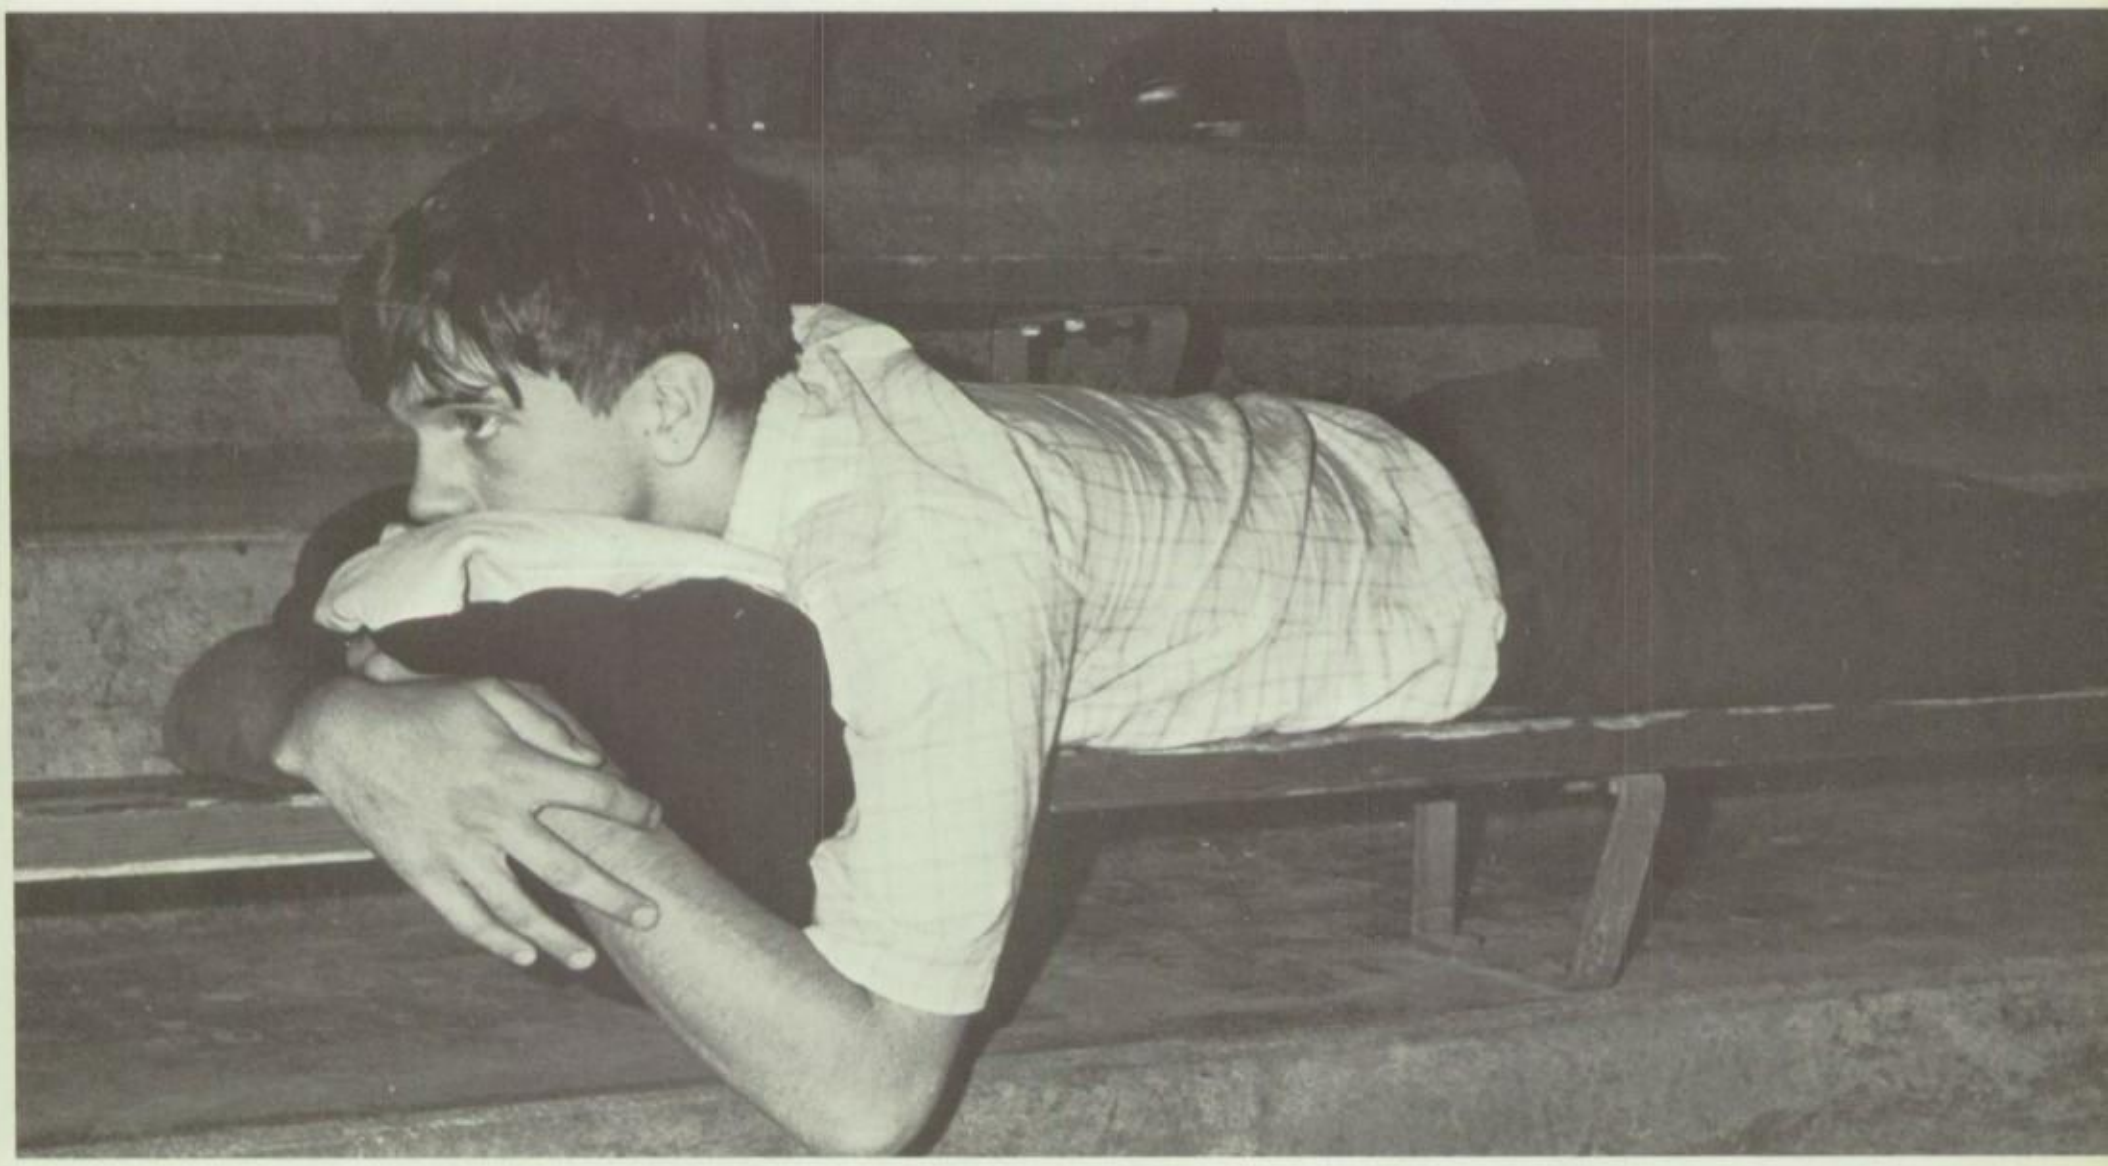
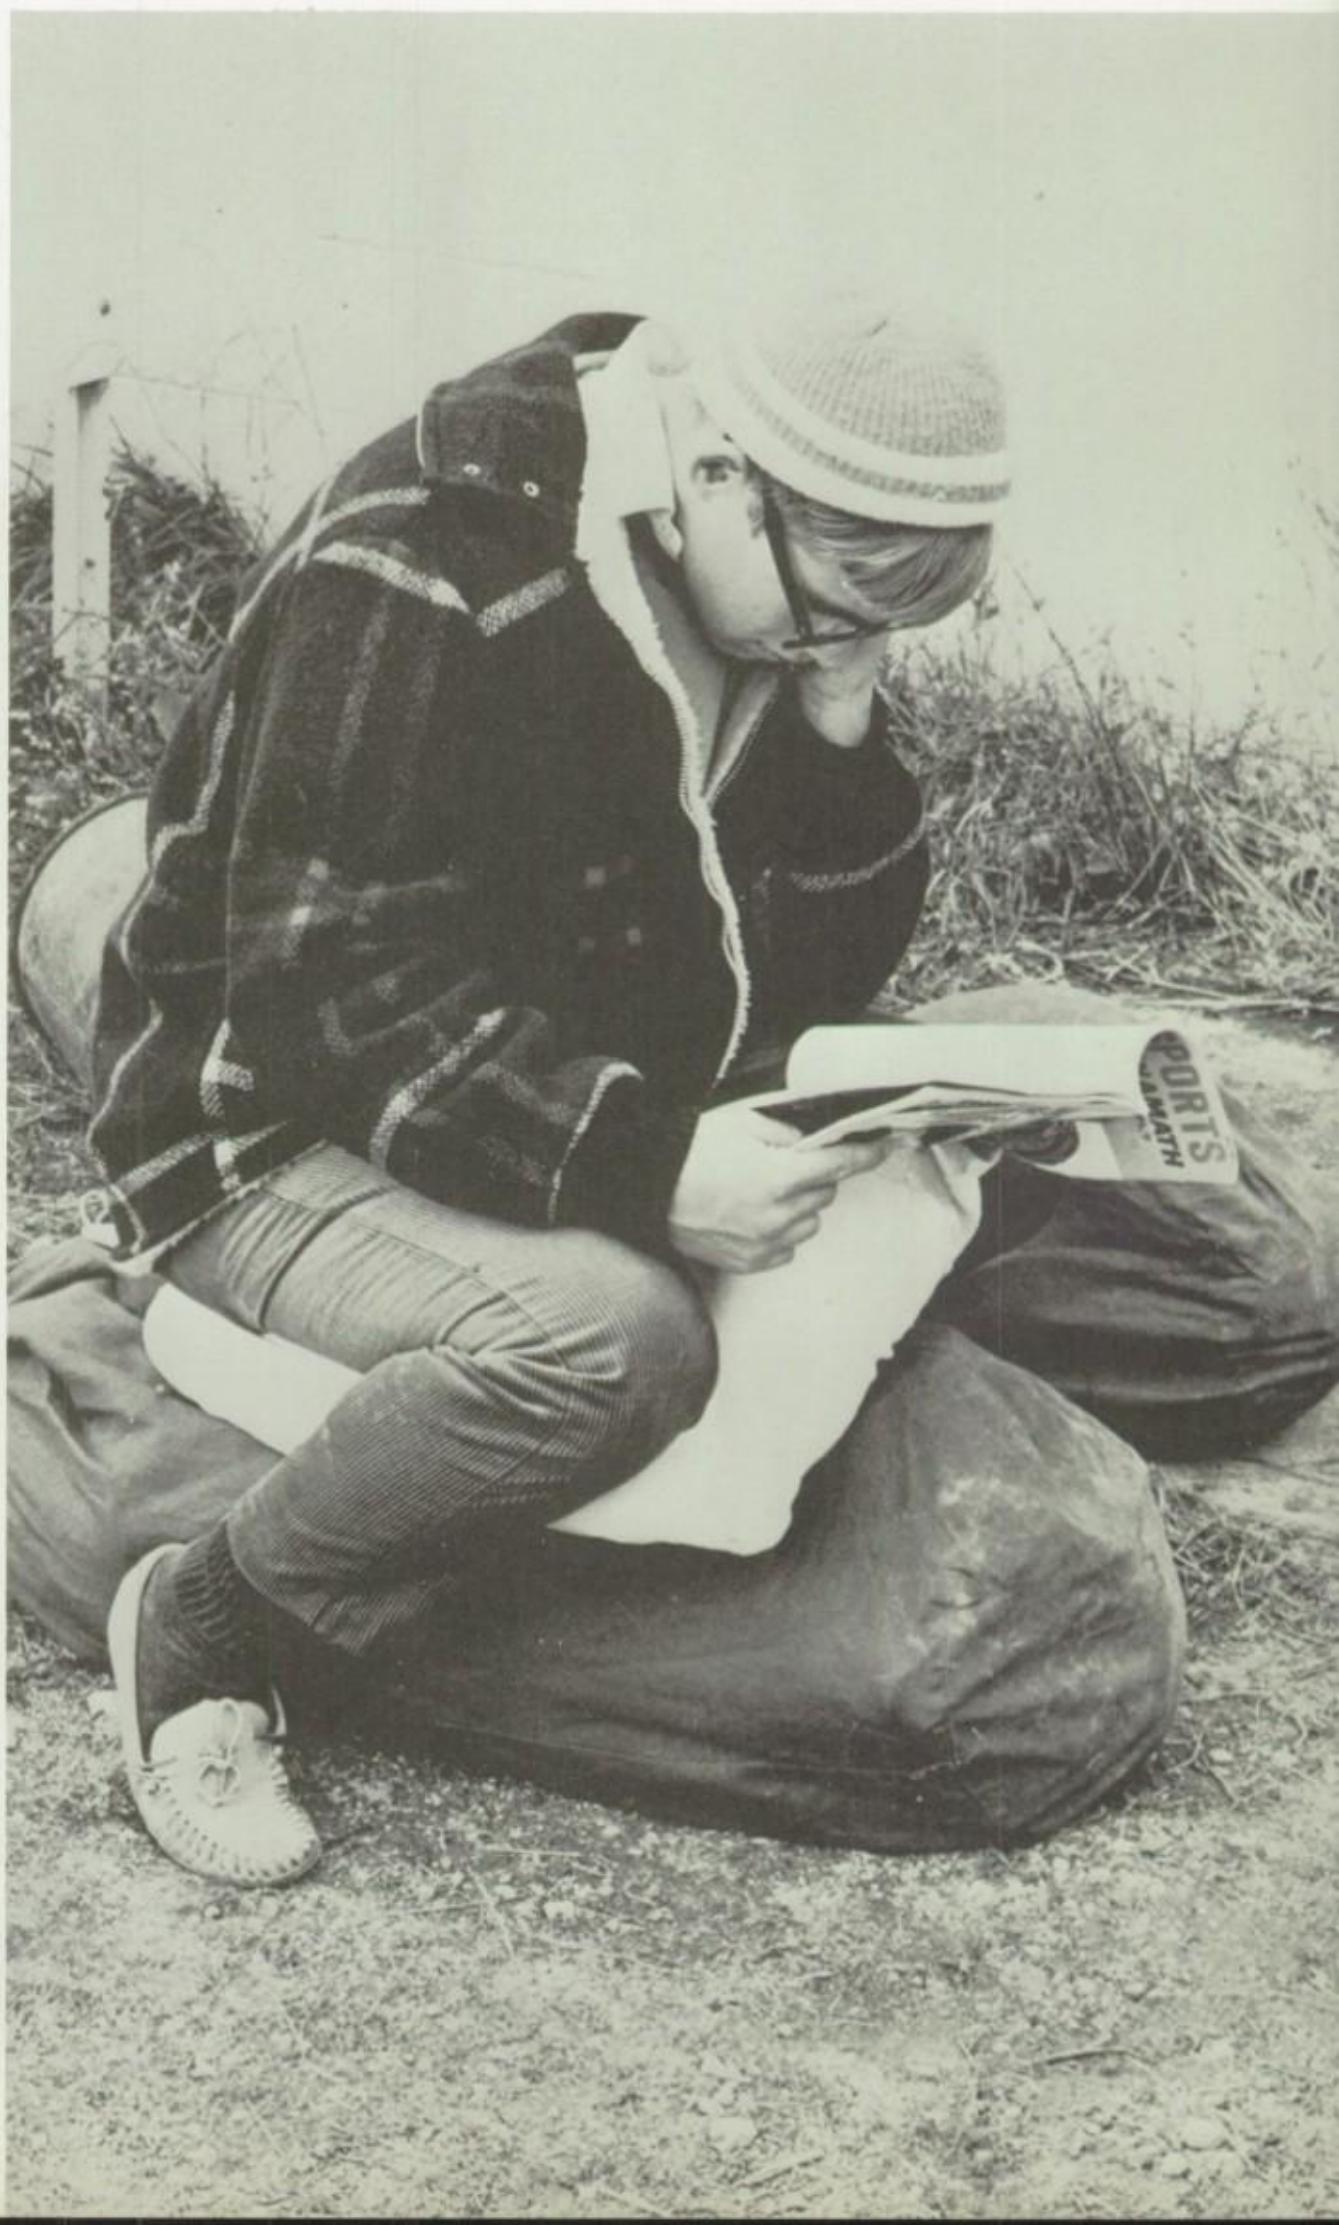
They called our class exceptional.
We worked together,
and to please everybody.
We had lots of fun —
the clean kind.
We had goals, and we achieved them.





SPORTS

The next year we kinda lost
our good-guy image.
We hurt our names;
we hurt our school.
Teachers wondered why.
Parents asked where they went wrong.

'Course, little did they know that they hadn't gone wrong.
We were just changing,
and we didn't mean
to hurt anybody.

Kids are bound to change.
God planned it
that way.
The change is just temporary and then we settle down again.

Our basketball team was great though,
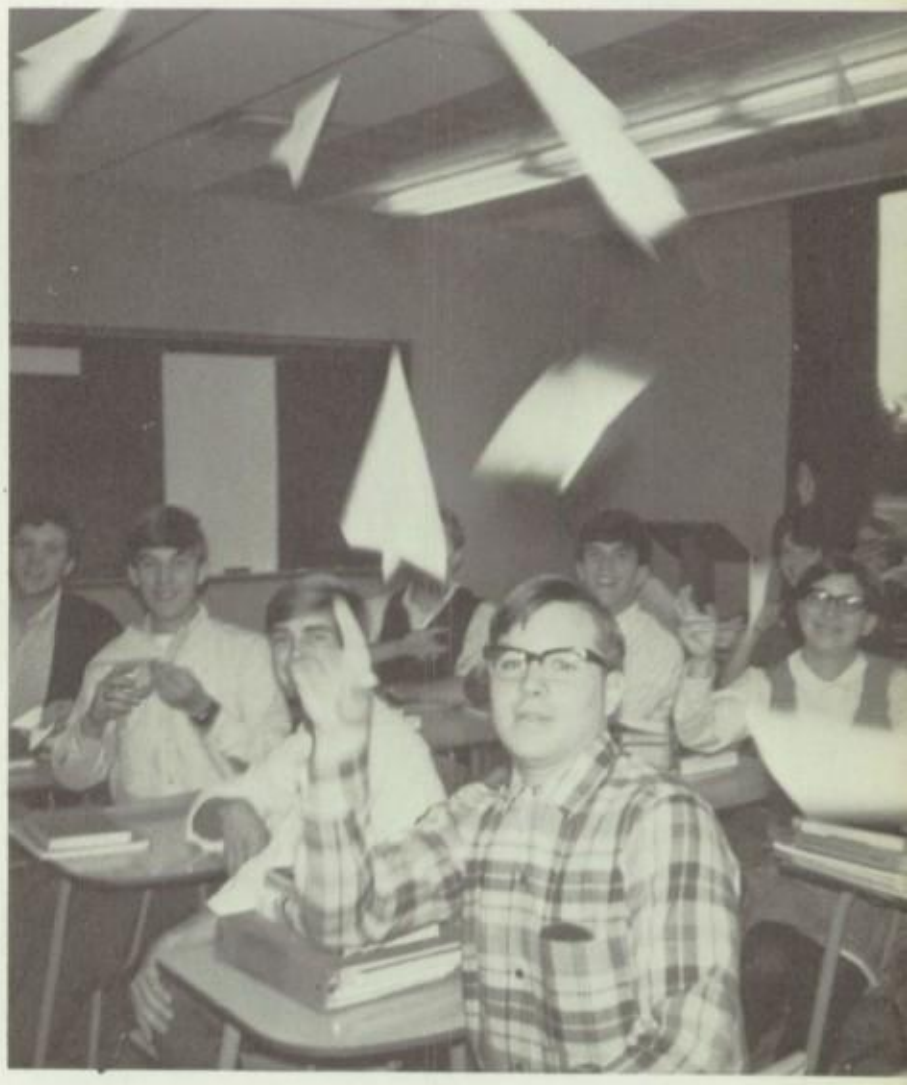
and that kept us together.
Lentz was rugged,
but we loved him.
Yeah, that team was great.



Along with the good times
we also faced sorrow.
A class member and a teacher were taken from us.
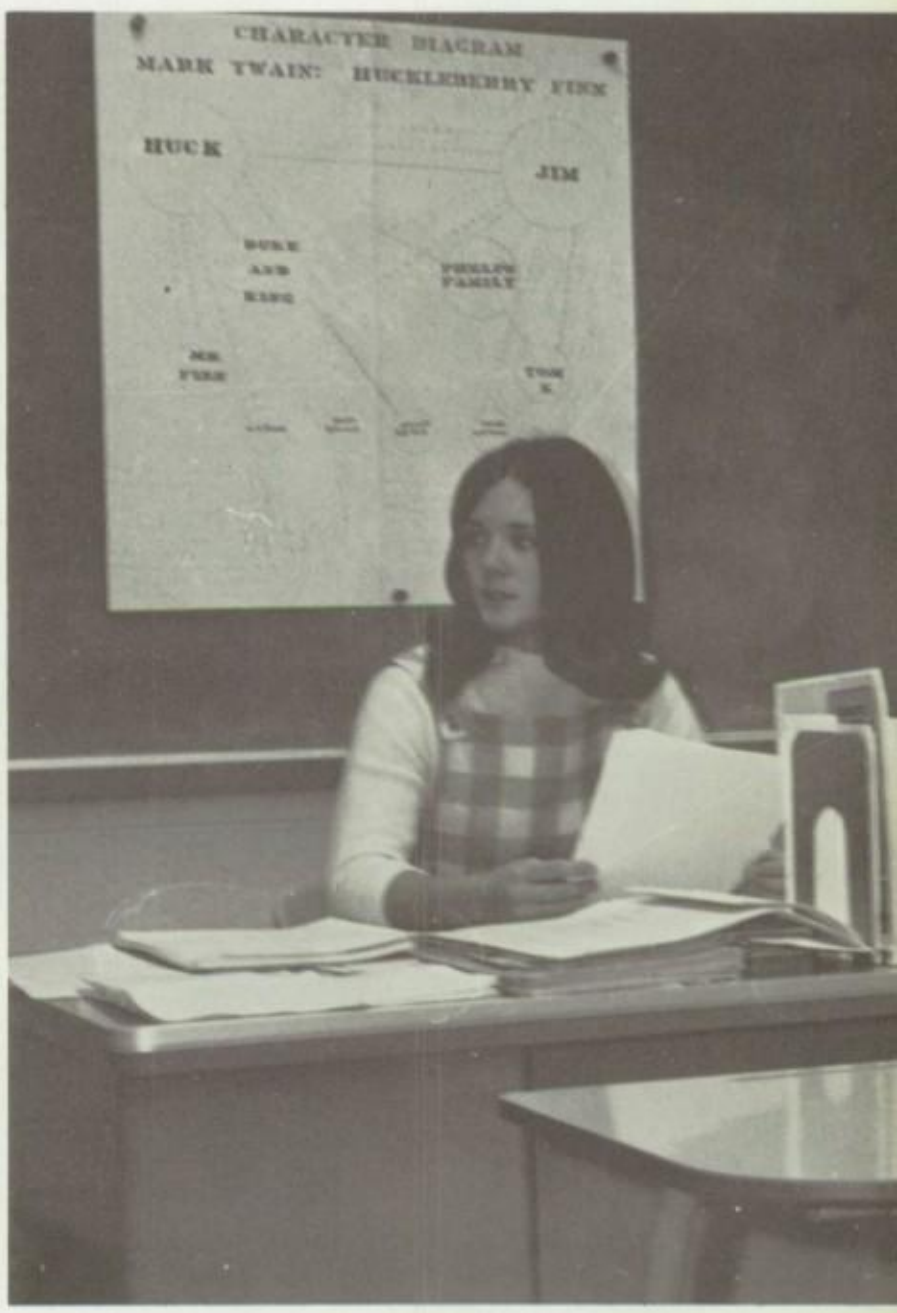
Days seem so long,
but life itself is so short.
It really made us stop to think.



CHARACTER DIAGRAM

We were faced with the problem of identity.
Our need was urgent and pressing.
We weren't sure what we wanted to be,
but we knew what we didn't want to be.
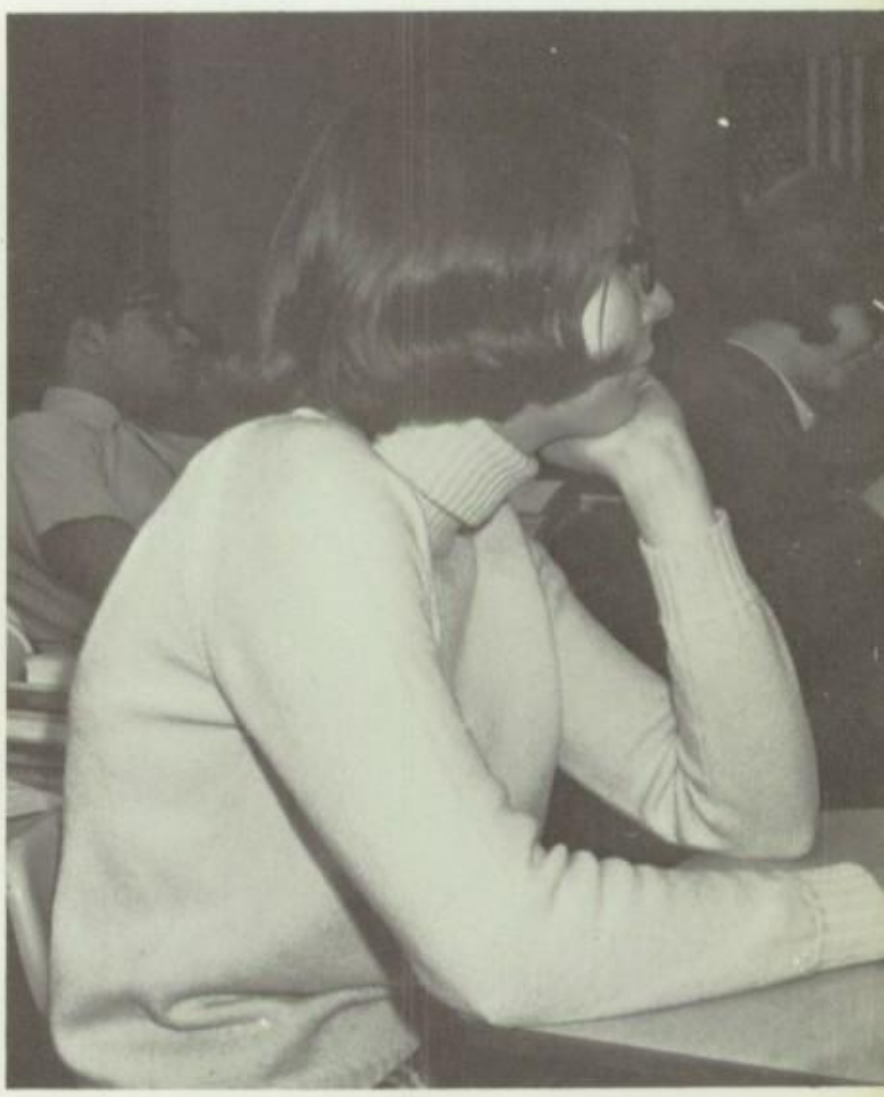
It was a time of uncertainty,
self-doubt,
suffering.



Senior year —
So much has happened
and it was all so great:
our homecoming float,
Dr. Scipio's speech,
the Christmas program,
and

Barrett's surprise party.
We were working together
like a class again.

Best of all
was the senior play, Our Town.
It was hard work
for our director and everybody else
involved,
But the results were tremendous.

As we near the end
we become frightened.
So much
is ahead of us.
The security of high school is behind.
Now we're afraid of the people,
challenges,
and all those big things
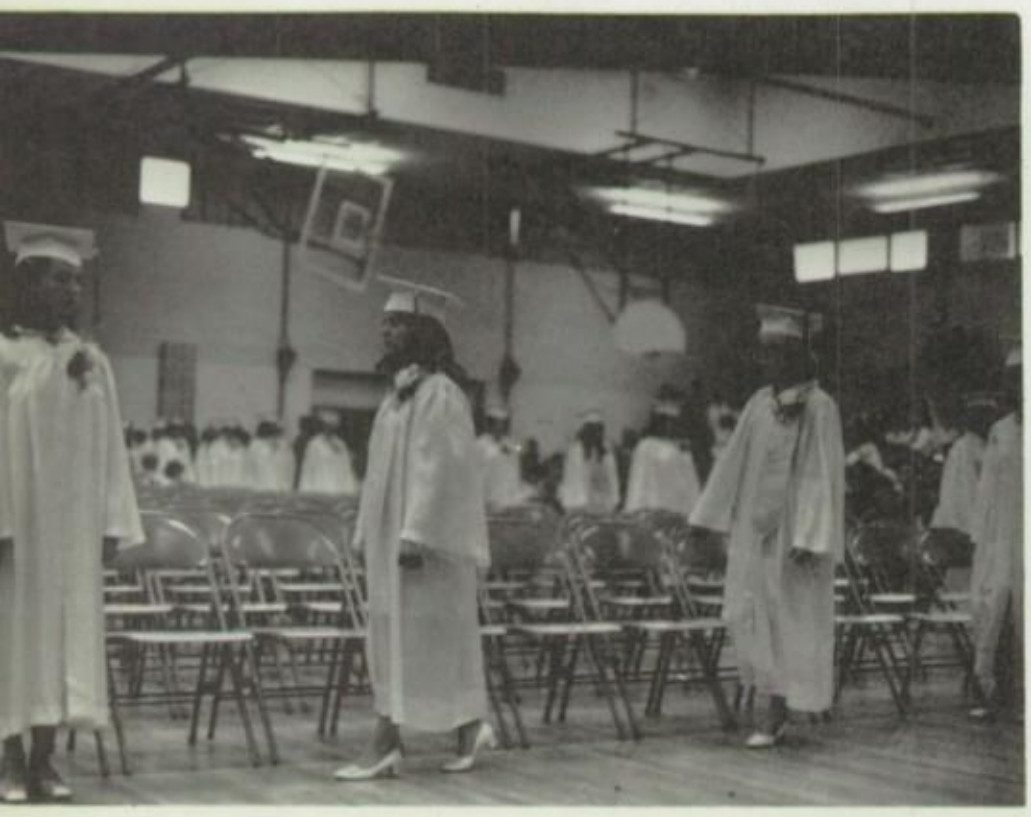
again.

Ve're leaving a good school.
hank you, everybody,
for being so great.
Our appreciation seems small now,
but it'll grow,
'cause people who care
always make lasting impressions.

Seniors

Since the Class of Sixty-Nine became an identity in September of 1964, it has set a record of individuality, of being different, not for the sake of difference itself, but of being different for the sake of growth. The choice of a single class color - green - implies this characteristic, and so does the class flower, the peace rose. Distinctiveness is evidenced, too, in the choice of a motto (see pages 2 and 4), which characterizes not only the experiences of the class, but a future as well.

Officers Mike Lynch, president; Gloria Miller, vice-president; Chris Foley, secretary; and Jackie Ries, treasurer, have worked faithfully for the class. Mrs. Paradise and Mr. Barrett have been the proud and enthusiastic sponsors.



Jackie Ries served as '68-'69 student council president; and, as council members, Marie McLennan, Jim Florip, and Doug Bertz have made themselves heard.

At mid-year when averages were computed, eighteen seniors were found to be honor students, headed by Jim Florip as valedictorian and Marie McLennan and Doug Bertz as co-salutatorians.

Sophomores

Activity characterizes this sophomore class. Under the leadership of Clare Hassett, president; Peggy Karsten, vice-president; Jo Paradise, secretary; and Sally Streich, treasurer, the sophomores built their prize-winning homecoming float and conducted a successful magazine sale. The fact that both of these activities occurred at the same time created hectic days for the sophomores and their sponsors, Mr. Roeske and Mr. Werda. Their representatives at homecoming were Kristie Asikainen and Bruce Parsons, and for the Valentine Dance were Celeste Vogelheim and Paul Newhouse. Betsy Raymond, Dick Kile, Molly Dagner, and Bruce Parsons served on the student council.

Freshmen

Quickly overcoming the initial bewilderment of being in high school, the freshmen soon chose as their class officers: Jim Miner, president; Kathy Moeller, vice-president; Heather Stone, secretary; and Kathy Bertz, treasurer. Under the guidance of Mr. Shofner and Mr. Cilke, their sponsors, the freshmen's first project was to raise enough money to build a homecoming float. Representing the class at the homecoming were Debbie Ries and Jack Fairbanks; and at the Valentine Dance were Vicki Miller and John Quaine. Other freshmen learned about student government by serving on the student council. They were Sue Kortman, Scott McLennan, Katy Bertz, and Kevin Przybyla.

Football

For the Rogers City Hurons, coached by Mr. Joseph Veselenak and Mr. Robert Brietzke, the 1968 football season was primarily one of rebuilding. Rogers City, competing in the new Michigan Huron Shores Conference, compiled a respectable (4-4) win-loss record. One highlight of the season was the naming of Ralph Idalski to the Associated Press All-State football team. Ralph, Vic Roeske, and Paul Bellmore were Rogers City's representatives on the All-Conference Team.

asketball season at Rogers City id not have a happy ending this year s the Hurons finished with a dismal -11 record. Coached by Mr. rietzke, the team had quite a few eartbreaking losses in which the nargin of victory was only a couple f points. In the conference the lurons tied for fourth place, and again in the district tournament they narrowly lost to Cheboygan. One of the bright spots in the Huron line-up was Archie Urban, the small guard and playmaker. He was voted the team's Most Valuable Player and also led the team in scoring.

Junior Varsity and Freshman Teams

Considering lack of experience because of a previous year without football, the Junior Varsity and Freshman football squads did surprisingly well. The somewhat dismal records of one win and four losses and one win and three losses respectively, do not tell the full story. With the exception of one dropout due to injury, all the grid ders who came out stayed with the entire programs of Coach Van Hoesen and Coach Haag of the J.V. team, and Coach Britton and Coach Little of the Freshman team. Prospects for next year are good, with approximately half the J.V.'s moving up into Varsity football for the ensuing year.

Junior Varsity and Freshman basketball teams showed a lot of potential this year. Coach Britton's J.V.'s tallied a win-loss record of 9 and 8, while the Freshman cagers piled up an impressive 7 wins against 2 losses. Mr. Pete Ardini coached the Freshmen.

Track Team: (first row) Coach Lassard, R. Cosgrove, D. Mulka, B. Haag, M. Heinzel, R. Fairbanks, J. Patterson, R. Idalski, T. Socia, D. Kendziorski, H. Hawkins, S. McLennan, J. After a year's layoff due to the rejecting of the millage proposal, the track team came back strong to take fifth place in a nine team conference meet, losing third place by only one point. They then came back to take a second in the Cheboygan Invitational against the same competition. Jon Warwick took the only first in the conference meet by winning the mile run. He also won the mile in the Cheboygan Invitational.

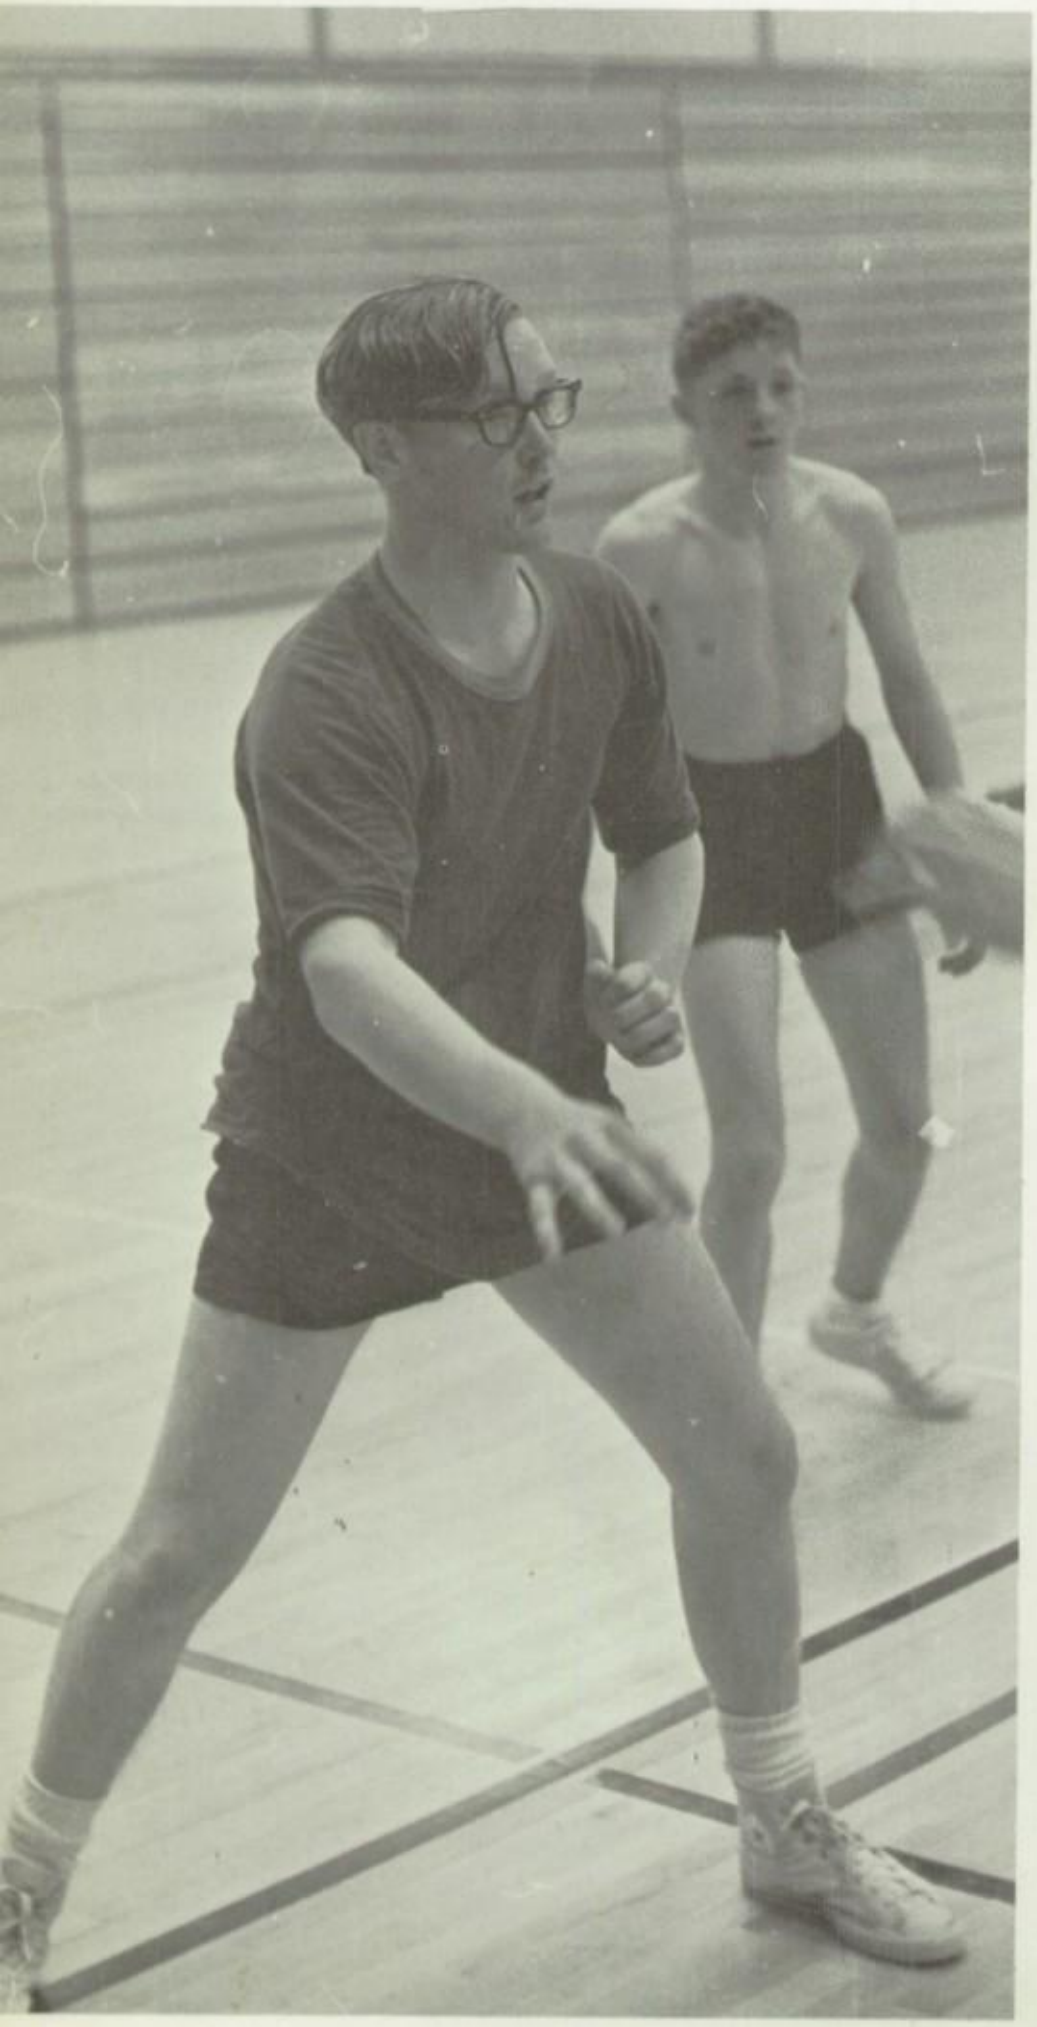
Ralph Idalski and Dan Redes also came through in the Cheboygan Invitational with each taking a first in the high hurdles and long jump respectively. In the Regionals, Ralph Idalski took a third in the high hurdles and Mike Grulke a fifth in the two-mile run. In all it was a very respectable season with many school records being broken.

Intramurals
Girls' Basketball
Girls' Softball

.During the winter months, some bored young men approached the administration with the possibility of an intramural basketball program being introduced. Mr. Lasard organized a program and, with the help of Miss Schnepp, provided many nights of recreation for many young people.



The girls' basketball team was very active this year under the leadership of Miss Schepp. The group visited many other towns in competition and also displayed their talents in games against the local alumnae.

A softball team for girls was formed this year. Sponsored by Miss Schnepp, the girls traveled to Hillman for a game and competed locally with the alumnae team.

Wrestling
Judo
Gymnastics

For the first time in recent history the Wrestling Club was in inter-scholastic competition, going to Alpena for a match with Gaylord, Petoskey, and Alpena High. They made a creditable showing against tough competition. Next year, money permitting, the club hopes to enter more matches with a wider variety of competition. Mr. Barrett coached.

Judo: (back row) N. Wickersham, E. Brege, G. Burns, R. Terrazas, G. Redes, T. Bellmore, C. Cook, (front row) D. Asam, S. Centala, W. Tulgetske, B. Kamyszek, (in action) T. Plath, Mr. Barrett.

The Judo Club was again under the fine coaching of Mr. Barrett. After an agenda which included several matches on All-Sports Night in February, the club concluded its season with a judo tournament in May, in which Al Gapczynski and Scott Centala came out victorious in the heavyweight and lightweight divisions respectively.

Gymnastics teams for both boys and girls were organized this year. Under the watchful eyes of Mr. Little and Miss Schnepp the two groups learned the basics of the sport. Hoping to compete in future years, the teams exhibited their skills at half time of a basketball game and All-Sports Night.

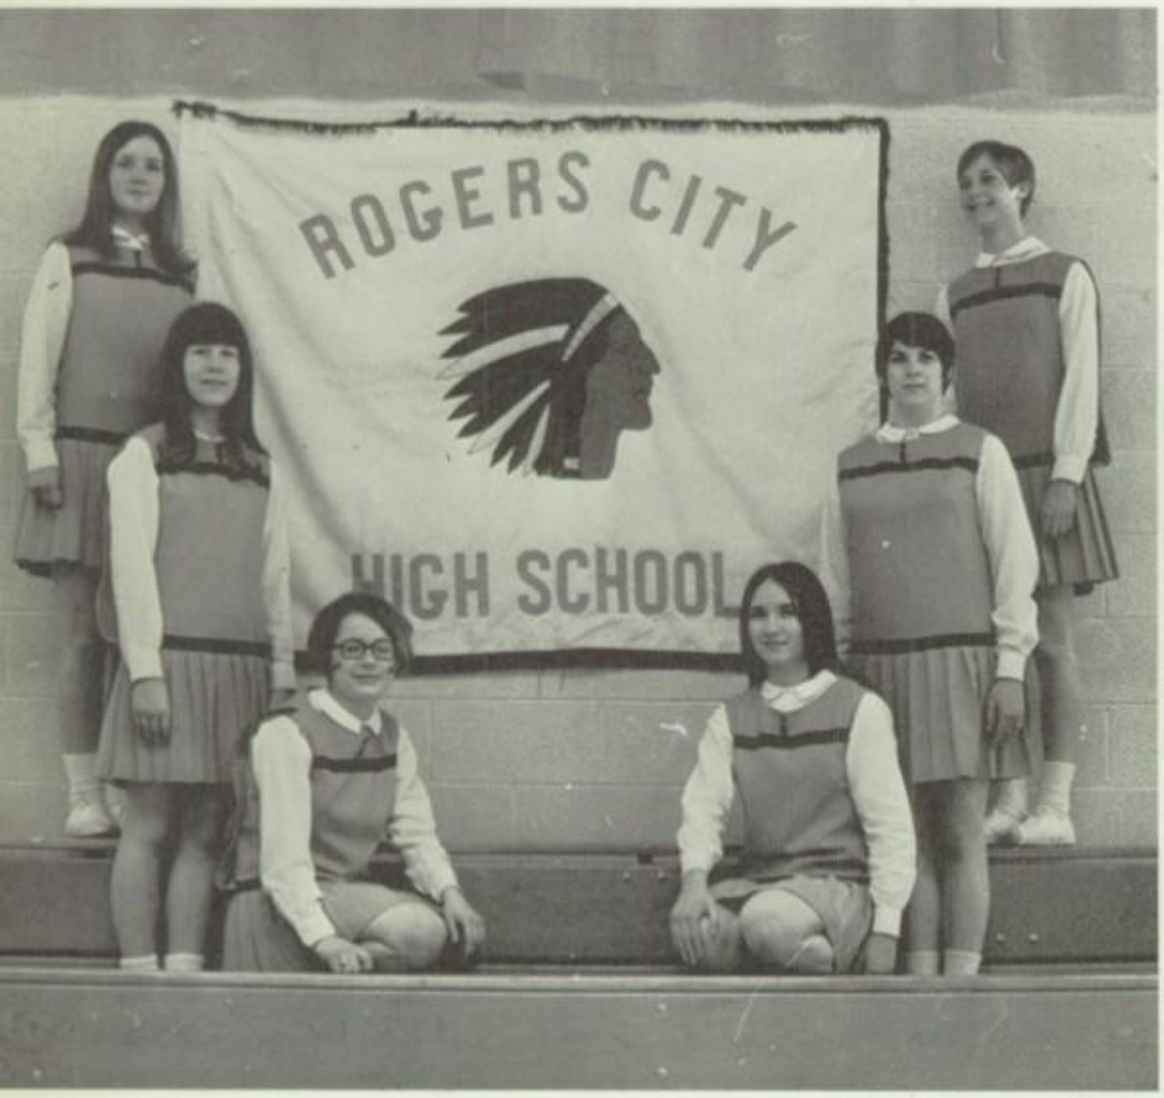
Cheerleaders

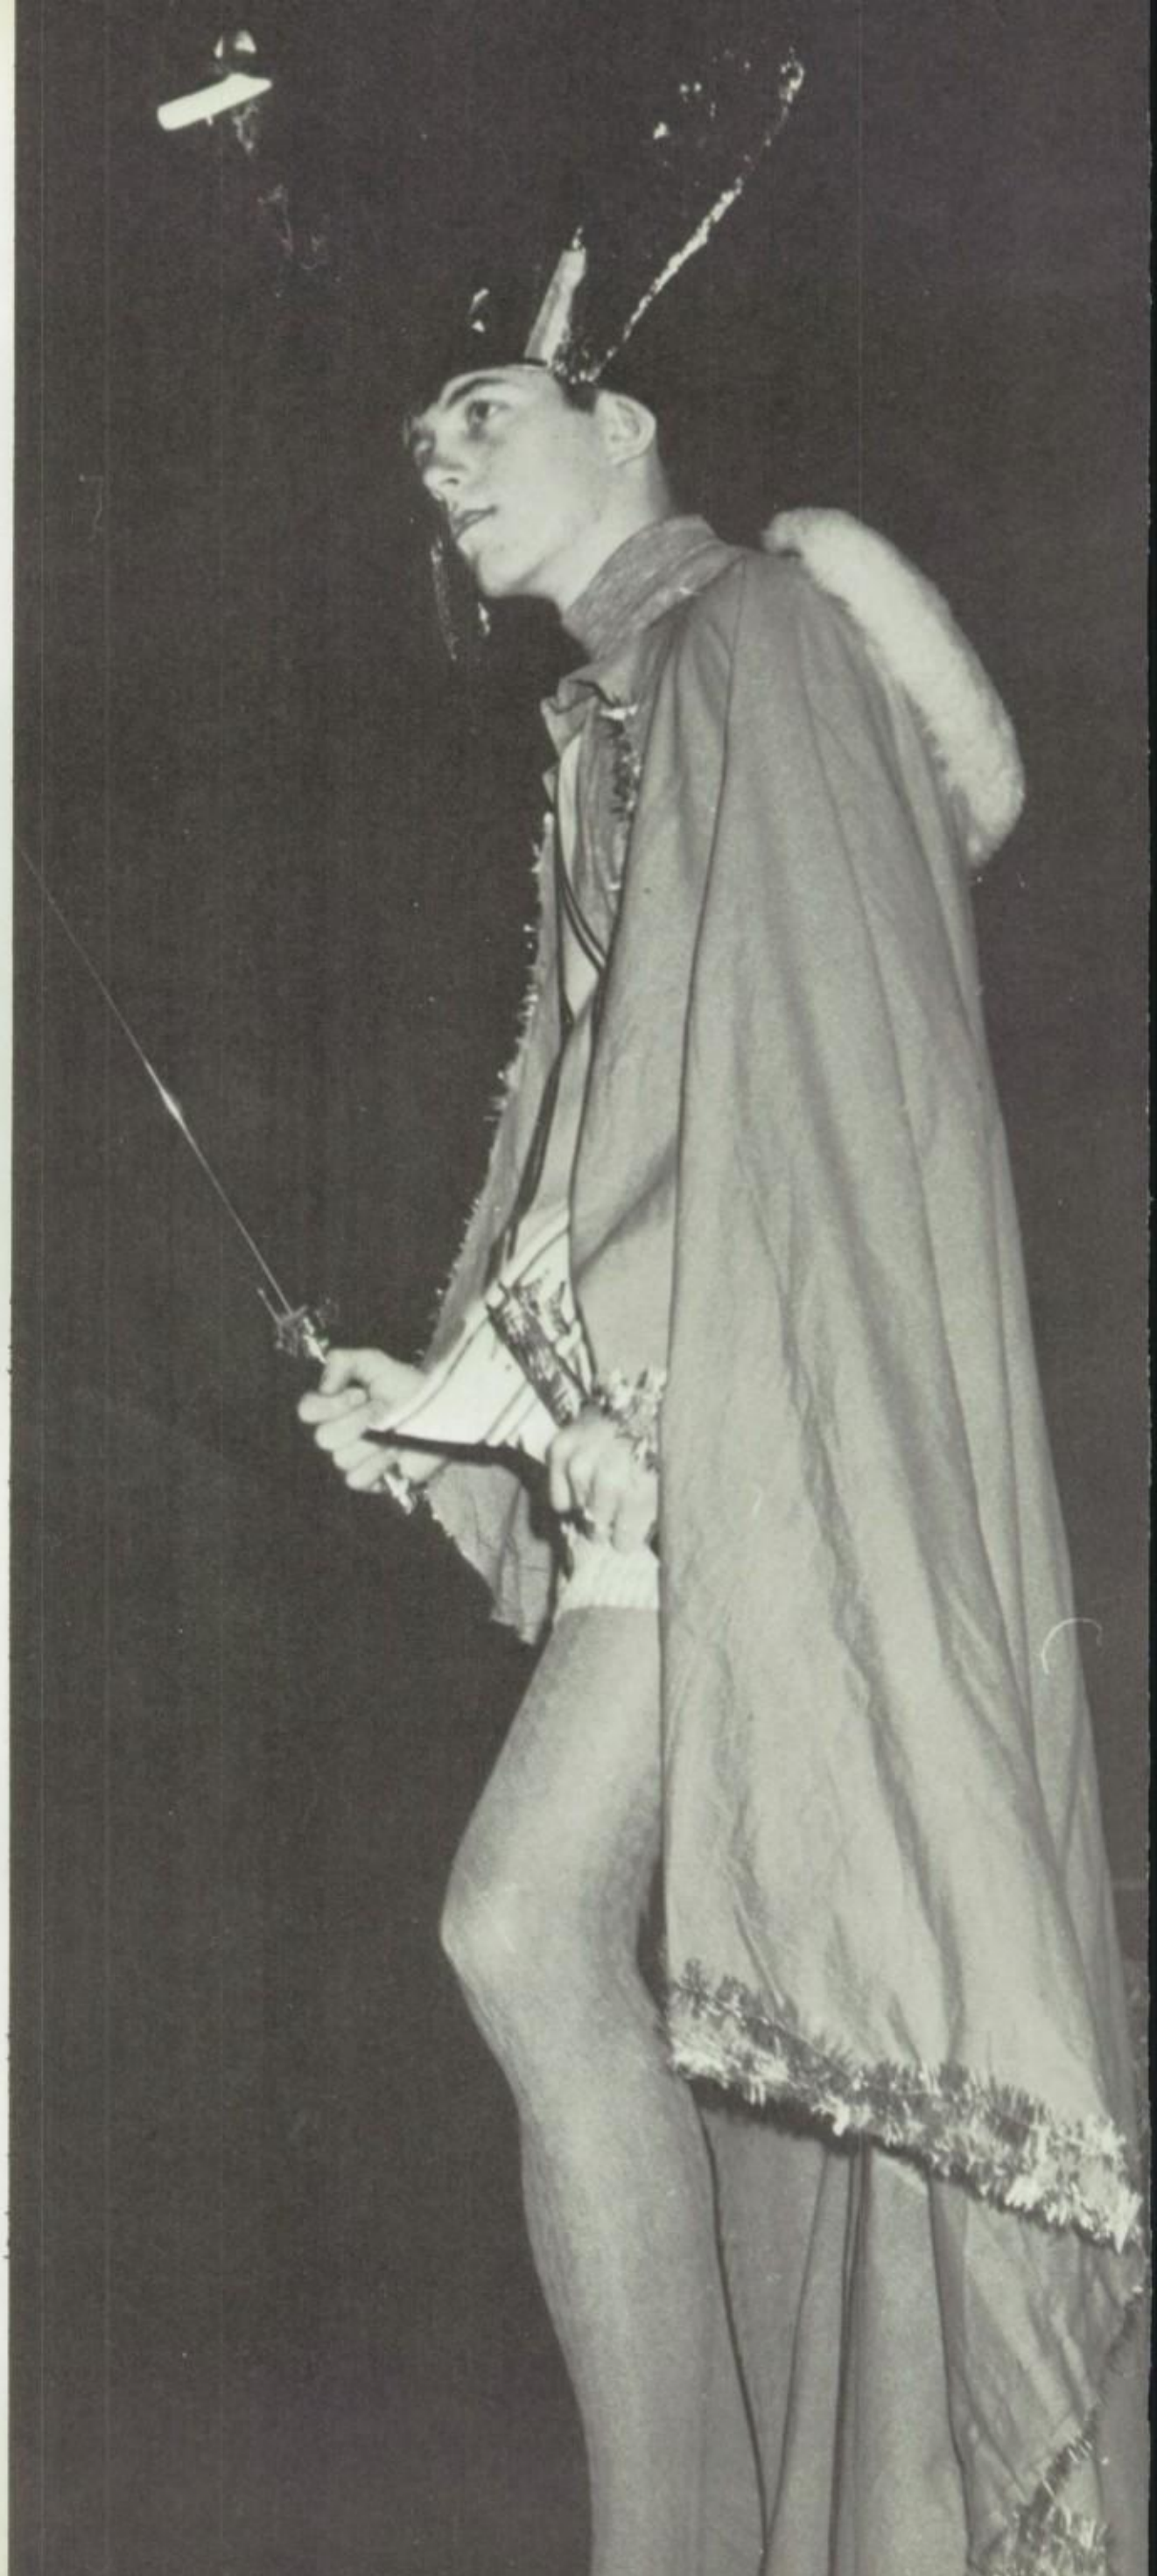


Varsity Cheerleaders: C. Foley, D. LeVeck, M. McLennan, S. Micketti, C. Newhouse, P. Streich.

'hic new uniforms and bright new heers of the cheerleaders sparked chool spirit during the 1968-69 chool year. Enthusiasm of both ne varsity and junior varsity cheer-eading squads was evident in their ep rallies and fund-raising projects. 'hrough their efforts, the snake-ance, which formerly marked the opening of the football season, was reinstated. As a special feature, the varsity cheerleaders, led by captain Chris Foley, co-captain Susan Micketti, and secretary-treasurer Paula Streich, presented a pom-pon routine during the basketball season.

J.V. Cheerleaders: (back row) M. Dagner, J. Paradise, B. Raymond, (front row) J. Florip, K. Asikainen, K. Bertz.

Activities



Homecoming

Despite a deluge of rain, the 1968 Homecoming festivities moved rapidly, starting with a parade led by the band and followed by class floats. The seniors, who built the queen's float, designed a large daisy as a throne for Her Highness with the motto "A Time for Peace" (lower right). Other classes chose comic strip characters as their heme. The juniors had Snoopy, The Red Baron, landing his dog-house on a Blue Devil (opposite lower left). The sophomore float, first place winner, depicted characters from B.C. (upper right). The freshmen chose Andy Capp (bottom). Queen Beth Mulka and her escort, Ralph Idalski, Mr. Football (below), reigned over activities. At the dance her court consisted of freshmen Debbie Ries and Jack Fairbanks, sophomores Kristie Asikainen and Bruce Parsons, and juniors Louise Cicero and Ron Hopp. Susan Blake and Todd Schalk were flower girl and crown bearer (opposite top). Coach Veselenak crowned the queen.

Christmas Program

Junior-Senior Prom

Camelot was reconstructed for the 1969 Prom, necessitating long hours of work by seniors, juniors and a few sophomores, as well as Mr. Garrett. In keeping with the theme, the gym was decorated as a great castle. A mural of a medieval journey covered one wall, while the others were decorated as castle walls hung with shields. Huge banners were suspended from the ceiling and a castle in the clouds formed a background on the stage where the band was located. Couples attending enjoyed refreshments from the Castle Gate. One of the highlights of the evening was the grand march led by the junior and senior class presidents and their dates.

Valentine Dance

"For the Love of Ivy" was the theme song the junior class chose to establish the mood for the Valentine Dance. Dominating the stage was a huge red heart accented with pink flowers. Picket fencing flanked the Queen's throne, situated beneath the heart pierced with an arrow bearing the names of seniors Queen Ann Szczerowski and King Jere Whitely, who reigned over the festivities. The Queen's court (far right) consisted of (left to right) freshmen Vicki Miller and John Quaine, sophomores Celeste Vogelheim and Paul Newhouse, King Jere and Queen Ann, crown bearer Jeffry Valentin and flower girl Cheryl Chase, and juniors Susan Wenzel and Wayne Jackson. The highlight came mid-evening when Queen Ann and her court were presented by their escorts to the student body. Coach Bob Brietzke crowned Queen Ann. Neil Carter and Nancy Johnson (above) do their thing.

Senior Play

A search for an unusual script for the senior play ended with the appropriate selection of Thornton Wilder's OUR TOWN, an utterly human presentation of the basic meaning of life. "This is the way we were - in our growing up, in our marrying, and in our dying" in the New Hampshire town of the early 1900's that could have been Rogers City or any town of any day.

Jay Amorose, as the stage manager who guided the audience through the action and the almost completely imaginative setting, handled the exposition like a professional. Amazingly sensitive portrayals of Emily Webb and George Gibbs were turned in by Susan Micketti and John Parsons. In the difficult roles of parents of the romantic leads, Jackie Ries, Steve Geyer, Ann Steen and Jim Florip performed expertly.

"Everyone knows in their bones that SOMETHING is eternal, and that something has to do with human beings," says the Stage Manager. And there'll be something eternal about OUR TOWN - at least to the human beings who presented it in our town.

Organizations

Band

Stepping out proudly in their new uniforms, the RCHS band, under the direction of Mr. Cilke, began a very active year with halftime shows for the football games. Following this was the Christmas concert. Then came district solo ensemble at which the brass quintet and flute-clarinet duet received I ratings and qualified for the state ensemble, where both groups received II ratings. At the district festival in Petoskey the band received the usual II rating.

This year the band went on tour for the first time, playing concerts at Onaway and Indian River High Schools. The highlight of the year for band members was the trip to Detroit, where they heard the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, and to Ann Arbor, where they heard three U. of M. bands perform.

Following this was the last concert of the year, Mass Band, which the RCHS band hosted, and the band banquet.

Band officers for the 1968-1969 year were Brenda Osburn, president; Mark Koenig, vice-president; Cathey Peck, secretary; and Gloria Miller, treasurer.

In addition to the recruitment of new members and helping the custodians at basketball games, the club was able to purchase a much-needed tackling sled for the football program.

As one of the largest electric and gas utilities in the United States, Consumers Power Company offers a wide variety of job opportunities, We are always looking for qualified personnel...the well-known "voice with a smile" to give our customers help and information—bright, outgoing, responsible persons to explain our many services—clerks and typists—outdoor jobs, planning and installing gas and electric service, reading meters, driving trucks—etc.

Care to join us? If you do, please get in touch with our Division office in your city.

Perannos Staff

For the PERANNOS staff the school year of '68-'69 has been one of change. One difference from past years is distributing the yearbook in the fall of 1969 instead of in the spring. In doing this we were able to include events from the entire school year. Also, for the first time we have used color. In producing the PERANNOS, the staff had to rely on several people for help. Among these are Mrs. Paradise, who spent many hours working with us, and Mr. James Stewart, who did most of the photographic work. We would also like to thank Mrs. McLaughlin, who was most helpful whenever we needed lists of students or materials mimeographed.
